ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANTS' UNOPPOSED SECOND MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO RESPOND TO COMPLAINT

Before the Court is Defendants' Unopposed Second Motion for Extension of Time to Respond to Complaint, filed December 6, 2023. (ECF No. 42.) The Court previously granted a motion that extended the response deadline by twenty-one days, resulting in the current deadline of December 7, 2023. (ECF No. 28.) Defendants seek to extend that deadline until January 12, 2024. (ECF No. 42 at PageID 215.)

In support of their motion, Defendants state that they are in the process of finalizing a temporary protective order that will facilitate Defendants' ability to learn the identities of the Jane Doe plaintiffs, investigate the allegations, and respond to the complaint. (Id. at PageID 216.)

Given Plaintiffs' lack of opposition, the Court finds good cause and GRANTS the Motion. The new deadline for Defendants to respond to Plaintiffs' complaint is now January 12, 2023. However, no further extensions will be granted absent extraordinary circumstances.

IT IS SO ORDERED, this 7th day of December, 2023.
